The 13th century Château de Gensac is an original AOP Armagnac castle. Following an ancient tradition, it produces an Armagnac of the highest class. Armagnac is France’s oldest and most traditional “eau de vie” and, due to its single distillation, a beverage of an immense character and noble flavours.

Château de Gensac

The Armagnac from Château de Gensac is kept in French oak barrels for at least 5 years, matured and refined so that its immense character and noble flavours can be fully enjoyed right after opening its beautiful glass&wooden closure.

A particularly aromatic top quality eau de vie, bearing the name “Z-Thénac” is produced from two hectares of plum orchards on the Château Thénac property. It has a round and succulent aroma of concentrated plum fruit. Its production began in 2007.

Château Thénac

THE CHÂTEAU THÉNAC ESTATE is situated in the east of Bordeaux in the heart of the Périgord region, famed for its picturesque countryside, medieval castles, fine wines and black truffles. The estate is located in the hamlet of Thénac and comprises almost 200 hectares in total.

The gin distillate is mixed with pine cone essence (a special Roner recipe), which gives the gin its unique flavour. The cones come from the Weisshorn mountain (Tramin, South Tyrol). The essence from the cones presents fresh, resinous and mentholy notes.

Roner Distillerie

The summer harvest of fresh and ripe pine cones is arduous manual work. The cones are then broken up and subjected to a three-week maceration in alcohol.
